

Introducing the special issue in honoring János Kornai published in Public Choice

On-line event on Teams hosted by Corvinus University of Budapest
7th of June 2021, Monday, 18:00 (CET) / 12:00 (ET) / 10:00 (MT) / 9:00 (PDT)

Participants:

- William F. Shughart II, Utah State University, editor-in-chief of Public Choice
- Mehrdad Vahabi, University of Sorbonne Paris Nord, guest editor of the special issue
- Amartya Sen, Nobel laureate Harvard University, author of the special issue
- Gerard Roland, Berkeley, University of California, author of the special issue
- Peter. J. Boettke, George Mason University, author of the special issue
- Peter T. Leeson, George Mason University, author of the special issue

Moderator:

- Miklós Rosta, Corvinus University of Budapest, author of the special issue

Program:

18:00-18:05 Miklós Rosta: Welcoming

18:05-18:15 William F. Shughart II, editor-in chief, Public Choice: Opening speech

18:15-18:30 Mehrdad Vahabi, guest editor: Introducing the special issue

18:30-18:45 Amartya Sen: Marx after Kornai

18:45-19:00 Gerard Roland: Culture, institutions and democratization

19:00-19:15 Peter. J. Boettke: János Kornai, the Austrians, and the political and economic analysis of socialism

19:15-19:30 Peter T. Leeson: Kornai goes to Kenya

19:30-19:45 Q&A

Link to the event: <https://surl.ms/Ydi>